

You are cordially invited to a Benefit Concert featuring

*Jeunes Virtuoses
&
Guest Artists*

Sunday, April 25th

4pm

*Graciously hosted by Kyoko Miyamoto & Tariq Mundiya
35 Mercer Street, 5th Floor (at the Corner of Mercer and Grand in Soho)*

Reception to Follow

Come enjoy Vivaldi's Four Seasons performed by the Jeunes Virtuoses de New York as well as additional works performed by guest artists, including Mozart's Piano Concerto K414.

Jeunes Virtuoses is an ensemble of exceptionally gifted young musicians, most of whom are students of Arik Braude and Sophie Arbuckle, who perform on either side of the Atlantic both as a string camerata, and in various chamber music configurations.

Our mission is to transform the lives of young people through music by providing them with unique and inspiring artistic experiences that elevate their creativity, communication skills, confidence and human and cultural awareness.

The purpose of this benefit concert is to raise travel funds for these young artists to travel abroad to participate in the Festival de Musique de Savoie, directed by French harpsichordist, Georges Kiss.

Guest artists include members of The Lincoln Center Chamber Music Society, The New York Philharmonic, The Juilliard School faculty, and the Mannes College of Music faculty.